Kameel Juma Hasan

Your Majesty,

I am much concerned about the fate of Kameel Juma Hasan, an 18-year-old Bahraini citizen, who is serving a 28-year-prison sentence in Dry Dock for allegedly being involved in 15 different crimes relating to his participation in anti-government protests.

Regrettably, the charges of illegal demonstrations and insurrection appear to have been trumped up. Additionally, Kameel's rights to a fair trial were not respected, and Kameel was tried as an adult despite the fact that he was a minor at the time when the offences are said to have taken place.

Recently, Kameel's mother has been informed that her son suffers from a painful skin disease.

I urge you to have the trials and sentences against Kameel reviewed according to international legal standards. Pending his release, please ensure that Kameel receives proper health care.

Yours sincerely,
