Mohamed Imaam Mohamed Imran

Dear Mr. A. R. P. J Alwis,

Mohamed Imaam Mohamed Imran was 20 years old when he was detained, on 9 May 2019, under the draconian Prevention of Terrorism Act. Three years after his arrest, the now 23-year-old has still not been charged with an offence, and the state has yet to provide any evidence of him committing an internationally recognizable crime.

It has now been three years since Mohamed Imran's arrest. He is the breadwinner who provides for his 54-year-old mother, a single mother who sold her house to pay for Imran's education, and his late grandmother who passed away while Imran was in detention.

Please support any efforts to release Mohamed Imaam Mohamed Imran, or if there is sufficient evidence of criminal wrongdoing, to promptly charge him with a recognisable offence, in accordance with international standards. Pending his release or charge, please urge the relevant authorities to ensure his fair trial rights are guaranteed, that he has the right to challenge the lawfulness of his detention and has access to fair bail hearings.

Sincerely,
